TOM KEY in *Christmas Memory*TECHNICAL RIDER

General requirements:

- 1) a stage platform (minimum 8' x 10') that is cleared of any obstructions and a lectern placed down center stage on which to place the book which Tom Key will provide and from which he will read.
- 2) a dressing room in the vicinity of the stage area; should be quiet and comfortable with full length mirror, private restroom, hot water and peppermint herbal tea, sugar, one bottle of water, fruit, cheese, crackers and dark chocolate.
- 3) if acoustics demand it, a wireless microphone
- 4) a tech (lights, sound, set/props) person to meet with Tom Key approximately two to three hours prior to performance—please schedule with Tom Key before his arrival.
- 5) in general a warm wash of light on stage will be fine. If there is opportunity for theatrical lighting please advise Tom and he will speak with your tech person about additional ideas.

No taping of The Christmas Memory performance is allowed without the written consent of Tom Key prior to the performance.
